

THE WODSWORTH ANNUAL DOG REVUE - tech specs

The Wodsworth Annual Dog Revue is a 40 minute interactive, outdoor, all ages show for festivals and events in which children and adults can become a dog or trainer and take part in a surreal and hilarious dog show.

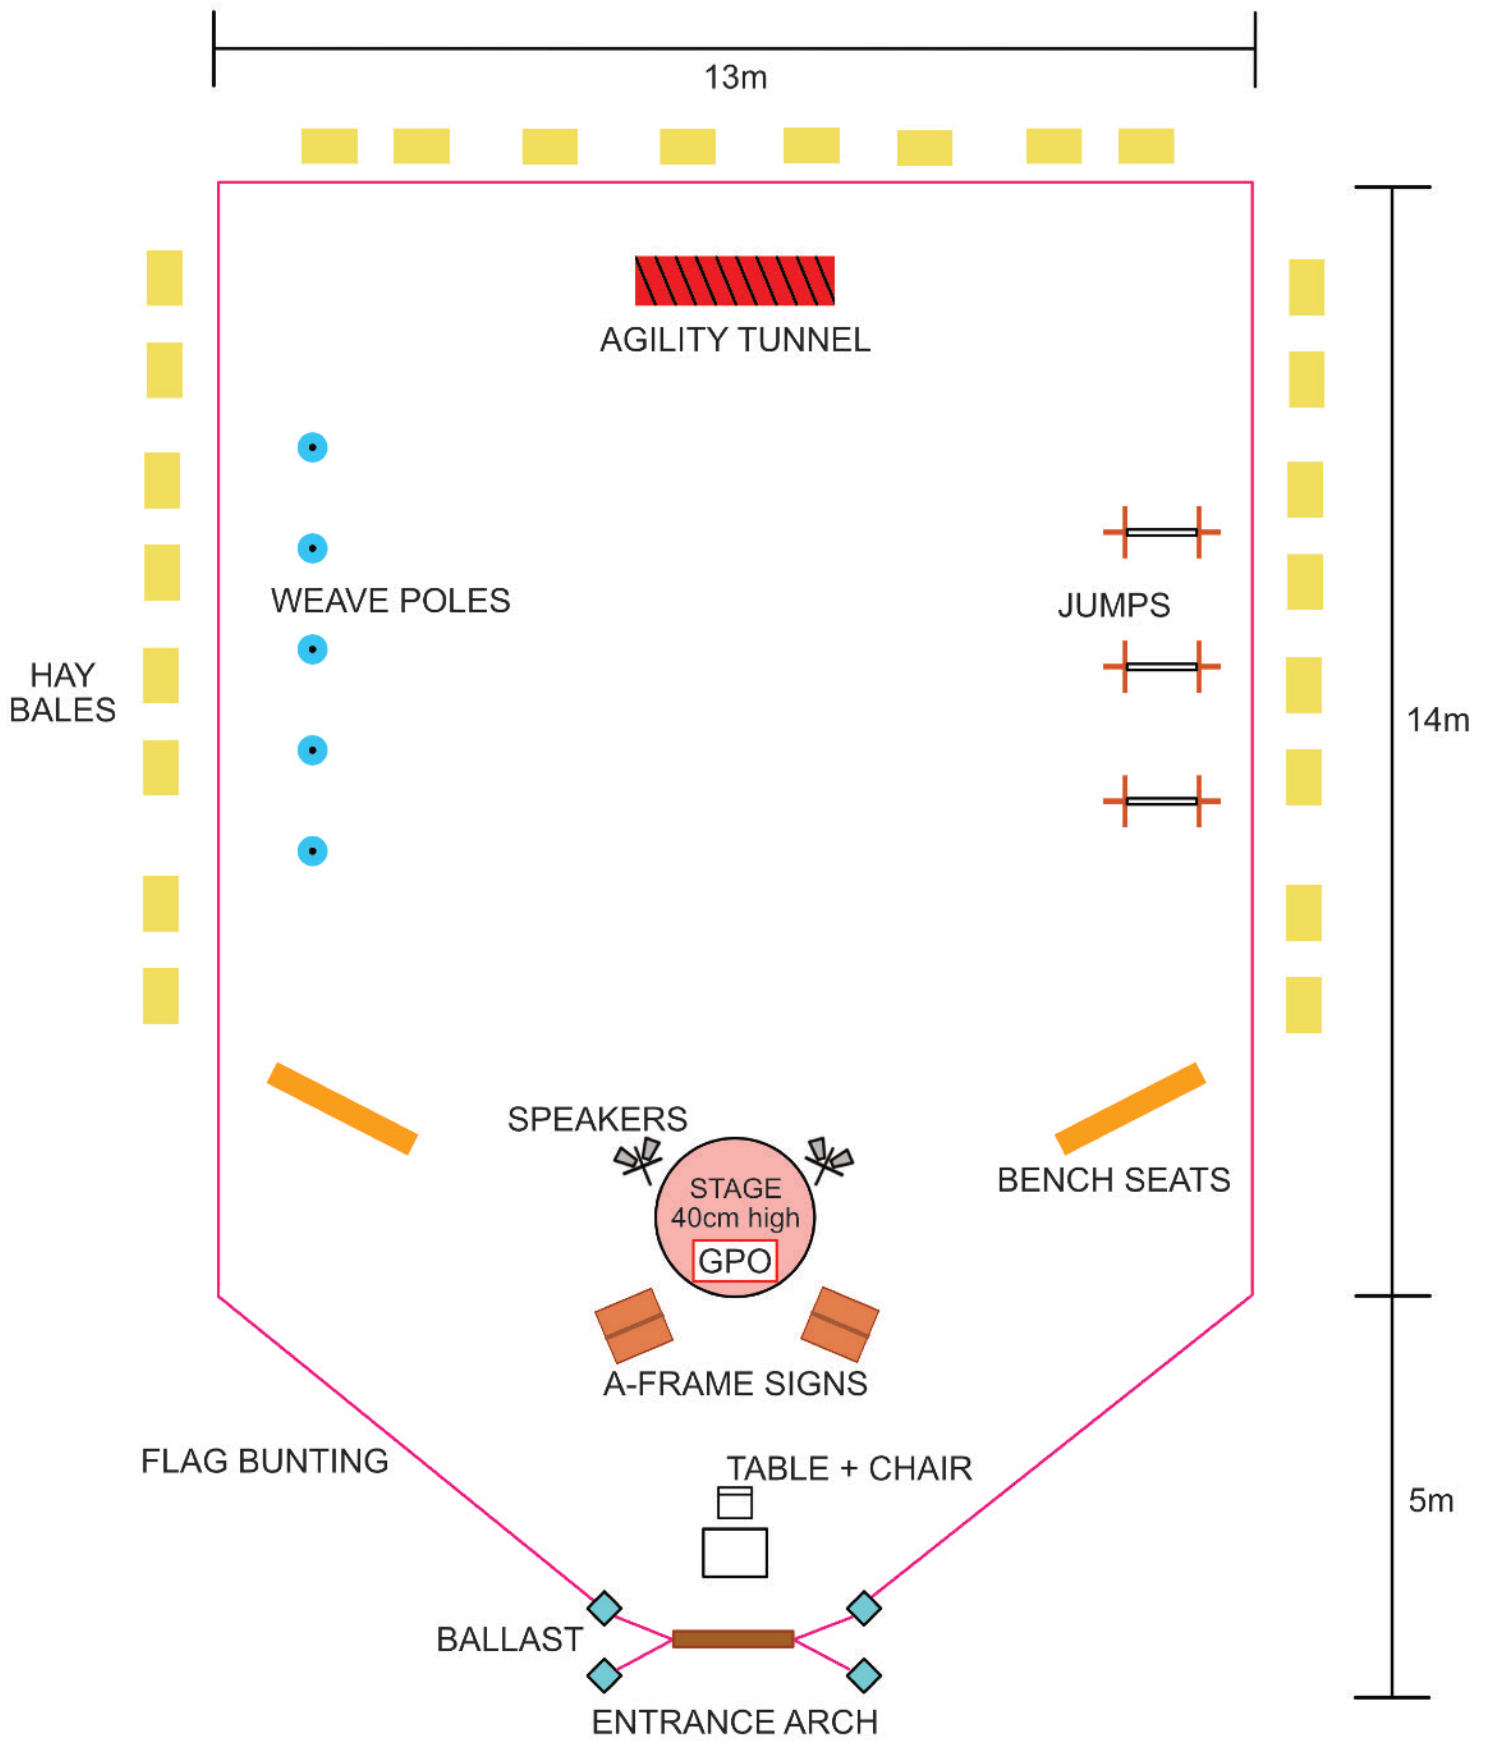

Featuring Reginald Wodsworth III, eccentric heir to the Wodsworth show-dog dynasty, and his award winning show-poodle Fluffy.

Created by Lachlan MacLeod and Niow

TECH REQUIREMENTS - presenter to supply

- 13m (w) x 19m (d) performance area.
- Space for audience on three sides of performance area.
- Hay bales (preferred) or benches around space for audience.
- 2 x bench seats for dog show participants.
- Non-public dressing area close to performance space.
- 2 x single phase power (GPO) at stage as per site map.
- Cable trays to stage as necessary for power.
- FOH to manage audience and supervise set between shows as required.
- Vehicle access for bump-in / bump-out.
- 2 hours bump-in.
- 1 hour bump-out.
- Show length 40 minutes.
- Maximum 3 shows per day with minimum half hour between shows.
- Touring party of 3.

Niow / Lachlan MacLeod

May 2025